

METER

RESELLING RESTRICTION IN THE CONTROLLED AGRICULTURAL MARKET AND GOLF MARKET

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Terms and Conditions, certain METER Group products and technologies are subject to market-specific distribution restrictions. Without prior written authorization from METER Group GmbH., no distributor, reseller, or customer may market, sell, distribute, or otherwise supply METER instruments or sensors into the following market segments:

Golf-related markets, applications, or clients

Controlled Environment Agriculture (CEA) markets, applications, or clients

Any attempt to supply METER products into these restricted market segments without express prior written consent shall constitute a material breach of these Terms and Conditions and may result in immediate termination of any distribution rights or purchase agreements, in addition to other available remedies.

METER reserves the right to designate, update, or amend restricted market segments from time to time. Distributors and resellers are responsible for ensuring compliance with the most current restrictions.
